PRACTICE SUMMARY

Civil litigation with an emphasis on business, real estate and financial services disputes.

- Extensive experience in the management and trial of litigation matters in state and federal courts, as well as in arbitration, mediation, mini-trial and other alternative dispute resolution proceedings.
- Cases have ranged from simple contract disputes to complicated, multi-party litigation in diverse areas of substantive law, including construction defects, lender liability, commercial and shopping center leases, insurance, business and lending frauds, officer and director liability, professional liability and unfair business practices.
- Particular expertise in California real estate law (including real property secured transactions, leases, developer's and contractor's liability, real estate appraisal practice and property tax assessments), insurance law (including, particularly, defense and coverage issues under financial institution bonds, commercial general liability, title and directors and officers liability insurance policies), the preparation, examination and cross-examination of expert witnesses, including lawyers, accountants, architects, appraisers and scientists, and the coordination of related litigation occurring simultaneously in different venues.
- Extensive experience in coordinating the defense of multiple defendants in large class actions, including the coordination of extensive discovery proceedings among numerous joined defendants.
- Consultant to other partners on matters of strategy and tactics in sophisticated business litigation.
